

ALUMNI SET NEW RECORD

ASKS UNITS TO ABSORB SENIOR CLASS

DIPLOMA, LIKE MAGIC WAND, TO TRANSFORM GRADS INTO ALUMNI

Thirteen college seniors will walk across the stage June 5, grasp diplomas, and — Presto! — they will be Alumni.

"We would like to see Alumni Chapters absorb these young graduates," said the Rev. Frederick Fehrenbacher, C.P.P.S., '22, acting president of St. Joseph's. "We feel certain the Alumni will contact them, invite them to the meetings and make them feel at home. And if any former student knows of an open position that one of these men might be qualified to fill, we know he will help the young alumnus get it."

The Rev. Alfred Gilligan, Carmelite Prior from Chicago, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. Frederick Serviss, M.S., head of the Geology Department at Purdue, will be the commencement speaker.

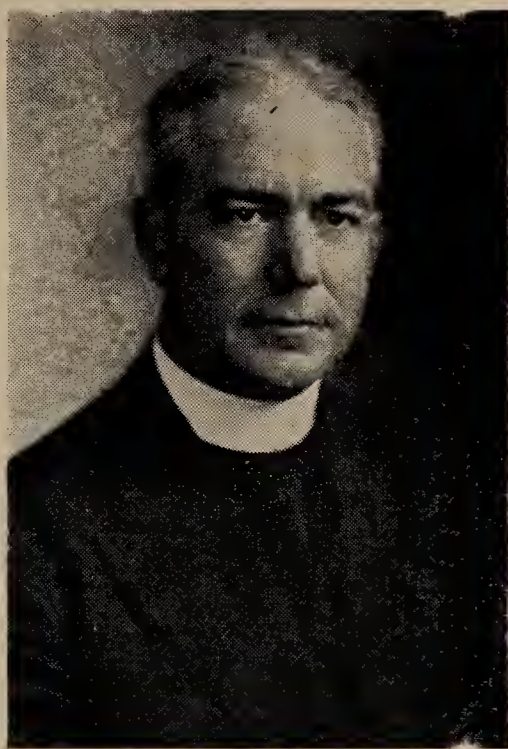

Seniors who will become Alumni on June 5 are:

Bernard Badke, Chicago; Vernon Casper, Louisville; Fred Jones, Gary; Harry Kenney, Indianapolis; John Koechley, Bellevue, O.; Stanley Kolanski, Akron; John Kuebler, Tiffin, O.; William Mauch, Louisville; Woodford Moore, Rushville, Ind.; Edward Spagnuolo, Saginaw, Mich.; Theodore Staudt, Canton, O.; James Thurin, Canton, and Harry Tippman, Gary.

Ed Taught Tommy Baseball

Ed Henrich, '24-'27, listened to the Yanks-Sox game with a special interest while he drove from Mansfield, O., to the College for Alumni Day. His kid brother, Tommy, is outfielder for the Yanks. Sports scribes all over the country have quoted Tommy as saying that he learned all the baseball he knows from his brother Ed. Big Ed was one of the greatest first basemen in the history of St. Joe baseball.

PINCH - HITTER

Rev. Frederick Fehrenbacher

Head-aches, that come with the presidency of any institution, are being taken over by the Rev. Frederick Fehrenbacher, C.P.P.S., '22, in the absence of the Very Rev. Aloys Dirksen, C.P.P.S., '20. Father Dirksen expects to return from Rome early in June.

Homecoming Sidelights Prove Old Boys Still Have Lotta 'Umph!'

When speaking of Alumni Night, Jim McIntyre, the nightwatchman said, "If the Pope knew all I went through during those dark hours, sure, he'd canonize me right now."

At the banquet, one Alumnus was heard murmuring, "What foods the morsels be!"

Overheard: "The last time I saw you was down at Camp Taylor during the war."

One Alumnus, who spent Homecoming Night in the temporary dorm rigged-up in Turner Hall, said: "I was sleepy, plenty sleepy, but I made myself stay awake. I was afraid to go to sleep because I didn't know what might happen to me."

ELECT OSCAR SIEBEN '25, PRESIDENT OF ASSOCIATION DURING ANNUAL MEETING

Alumni of St. Joseph's College made history May 7 and 8, when the registration of 188 former students at the Alumni Office shattered all previous Homecoming attendance records

Contact To Get New Deal

Alumni will be given CONTACT and Stuff for $1.00 a year.

Alumni who have already subscribed for CONTACT, also will be given Stuff, student publication, next school year. Any alumnus who has sent $2.00, one for CONTACT and one for Stuff, will be credited with a two years' subscription.

However, at least 1,000 Alumni must subscribe, or the publishers will not be able to continue this offer.

This bargain subscription rate, for seventeen copies of Stuff and nine of CONTACT, is being offered at the request of the Alumni.

One of the most fiery business meetings ever written into the annals of the association was held after the annual banquet.

Officers elected were: President, Oscar W. Sieben, '21-'25, Chicago; vice-presidents, John Wolf, '11-'15, Indianapolis, and the Rev. Gilbert Esser, C.P.P.S., '12-'18, Collegeville; secretary-treasurer, J. Henry Hipskind, '05-'11, Fort Wayne; executive board members, the Rev. Theodore Fettig, '09-'16, Monroeville, Ind., and the Rev. John P. Bruin, '12-'17, Payne, O. The Rev. Sylvester Ley, C.P.P.S., '13-'18, was reelected historian.

A student need not have attended St. Joseph's a full year to be eligible for membership in the Alumni Association, it was decided at the meeting. If any student, who was a resident on the campus for less than a year, expresses a desire to join the organization, he will be admitted, according to a motion that was carried.

Honorary alumni shall be admitted to the association, it was decided. However, before anyone may become an honorary alumnus, his name must be submitted and voted upon at one of the annual meetings. Whether the "honorary alumni amendment" shall be written into the constitution, or stand merely as a custom, will be decided at next year's meeting.

Upon suggestion of the Rev. Henry Lucks, C.P.P.S., Ph.D., dean of studies at the college, it was decided to change the Alumni Essay Contest awards from gold medals to $25 and $10 prizes. Judges for the coming contest, the assembly decided, are to be appointed at the next meeting of the English Department.

Alumni voiced their appreciation

Also overheard: "I stayed for all three acts of the play." Greater praise than that hath no man! (Continued on Page Four; Col. Four)

LEST WE FORGET

On Decoration Day, airplanes will fly over cemeteries to drop wreaths of flowers on the graves.

It wouldn't be a bad idea for us to send skyward a few wreaths of prayers for those Alumni who passed on during the dark hours of 1917-'18.

Lest we forget our war dead, J. G. Birkmeier and Sons donated a marble plaque which stands at the door of the chapel. These words are carved in the marble:

"This tablet, erected by the Alumni of St. Joseph's College, is dedicated to the memory of Cornelius J. Donahue, John B. Enders, Emil Hamilton, Albert G. Hoffman, Martin Kennedy, William Kennedy, William Lieser, Guy Stepp, Alumni who in the great war of 1917-'18 gave their lives that their country might live."

Wins Conroy Award

Anthony Ley, sophomore from Fort Wayne, won the Conroy Oratory Contest, Ascension Thursday night. An award is given each year by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas M. Conroy, '91-'96, of Fort Wayne, to the top-ranking speaker at St. Joseph's. Mr. Ley's oration was titled, "Separate the Shaven Heads," a plea for smaller prisons and the segregation of first offenders from hardened criminals.

Robert Peelle, '95-'98, is an accountant for Eli Lilly Company, Indianapolis.

MORE SIDELIGHTS

Here are some more sidelights that we picked up Alumni Day.

J. Henry Hipkind, '05-'11, of Fort Wayne, hasn't missed a Homecoming Day in twenty-eight years. "I almost lost out in 1914," Mr. Hipkind said, "but I didn't get into the army till a few days after the Alumni meeting." Mr. Hipkind was reelected secretary-treasurer of the Alumni Association for the fifteenth time.

James O'Brien, '16-'21, of St. Bernard, O., told about the days he played second and Father Fred Fehrenbacher, '17-'22, pitched. He explained a system of signals they had worked out that caught seven men off second in the Valpo game.

The Rev. Paul Deery, '12-'14, pastor of the Old Cathedral, in Vincennes, Ind., said: "I may have lost my hair, but I still have my memory."

First to register for Alumni Day was the Rev. James Maloney, '25-'31. He rolled into Rensselaer on the Monon from Louisville at 5 a.m. Saturday.

Can you name the Three Musketeers who took showers in the dark at 4 a.m., because they could not find the switch-box in Science Hall?

The Buckeye Schoolmaster

Blow the dust off your October 8, 1913 issue of Cheer, glance at the bottom of page two and you will find:

"Mr. Ed Ernst, '13, writes to the Alumni Historian that he is well satisfied with his position as teacher in Minster, Ohio. The Cheer is glad to hear from the 'old boys'."

(Alumnus Ernst is now secretary-treasurer of the P. and H. Supply Company, Fort Wayne. He is Past Commander of Fort Wayne Post 47, American Legion. The former Buckeye schoolmaster has an 18-year-old son at St. Joe.)

Hears From Provincial

"Although the passage was somewhat rough, neither Father Dirksen nor I were the least bit seasick," said the Very Rev. Joseph Marling, C.P.P.S., '23, in a message to his brother, Brother John, '23. The letter was postmarked Gibraltar.

Theodore Sulzer, '99-'01, is in the grocery business in Chillicothe, O. He belongs to the Knights of Columbus and Catholic Order of Foresters and has four children ranging from 34 to 19.

THE ROUNDUP

By

Coach Joe Dienhart

There must be some accountants on our baseball team. The boys surely believe in balancing the books. They won four games; they lost four games.

You can't say our boys aren't filled with Christian charity. They believe in giving a run for every one they take. But right now they are three up on their opponents. They totaled 54 runs to their opponents' 51.

Here's what happened since last we rounded-up things:

We went to Indianapolis and beat Butler 5 to 4.

Then came the Wilson College nightmare. You who returned for Alumni Day know that we came out on the short end of a 6-8 score.

Then the boys went to Cincinnati and took Xavier 8-2. Looks like our fellows like to play away from home.

We lost on the home diamond 7-6 to Indiana State, a team we had defeated 7-5 away from home.

Although we got three homers against Wabash, the home diamond jinx took its toll. We lost 11-9.

There are two games to go. We meet Manchester, May 22, at North Manchester, and Ball State, May 25, here. That word "here" gives me goose flesh.

The football game with St. Norbert's, of West DePere, Wis., has been switched from September 23 to November 12. It will still be played here.

So-long! I'll see you in September.

Have You Forgotten So Soon?

Remember when taking a squint at the other guy's paper during exams was called "scibeing?"

Remember when the fellow who hung around the Profs quite a bit was called a "jerker?"

Surely you haven't forgotten how you used to try to get the spots off the tablecloth with vinegar just before inspection. Some fellows even tried covering up the gravy marks with chalk.

Employees of the Carnegie, Illinois Steel Company in Gary are Harry McMahon, '15-'18 and William McMahon, '18-'20.

TURN BACK THE CLOCK

The purpose of this column is to stimulate memories. Most of the material used in it will be dug-up from issues of The Collegian, College Cheer, Gym Junk, and Diamond Dust.

In the first issue of The Collegian, (November, 1894,) appeared this item: "Mr. Frank H. Dirksen and Mr. Henry F. Droesch, two of the charter members of the Columbian Literary Society, are now engaged in teaching school, and are fast acquiring a reputation as live progressive teachers. Mr. Dirksen is in Shelby County, O., and Mr. Droesch in Mercer County, O. The Collegian extends its congratulations, and hopes to hear from them often."

Here are two more quotations from the first issue:

"The nutting season, which afforded the boys such substantial and profitable sport, is over."

"Boys, can't you get those football teams together again? It is too bad to abandon our beautiful grounds so early in the season."

A column headed "Personal" in the December, 1897 issue contained this item: "Mrs. M. Peelle of Indianapolis gladdened her sons, Robert and Maurice, of the minim department, by a visit. Their little sister Agnes had also come to see her brothers."

(Robert and Maurice are prominent men in Indianapolis, and "little sister Agnes" is the mother of Bob Connor, quarterback and captain of Butler's 1939 football team.)

It seems that a certain young fellow named Albin H. Ratermann had quite a few irons in the fire in 1924. Among other things he was editor-in-chief of College Cheer, winner of the Conroy Oratory Contest, and a sensational south-paw pitcher on the varsity.

(Father Ratermann is now in Cincinnati as associate editor of the Catholic Telegraph-Register, along with the Rev. Thomas Coleman, '27, and the Rev. Clarence Issenmann, '27.)

George Meyer Gets All Wet

"I'll never forget the night the old gym burned down," said George Meyer, '13-'14, of Muncie, Ind. "I hustled down the fire escape, and just as I galloped around the corner of the Faculty Building, someone turned the hose on me."

Three St. Joe Men to Teach for Catholic U.

Three St. Joseph College professors will teach for Catholic University during the summer.

The Rev. Anthony Paluszak, C.P.P.S., Ph.D., '09-'15, will be director of the southern branch summer session of Catholic U. at Our Lady of the Lake College and Incarnate Word College, San Antonio, Tex. In addition to directing the school, Father Paluszak will teach a course in Vergil and one in Roman Elegiac Poets.

The Rev. Paul Speckbaugh, C.P.P.S., Ph.D., will teach Victorian Poetry, Study of Romanticism, and Theory of Criticism at the University in Washington, D. C.

The Rev. Walter Pax, C.P.P.S., Ph.D., '18-'23, will teach History of Education and Philosophy of Education at Loris College, mid-western branch summer session of Catholic University at Dubuque, Ia.

ALUMNI SET RECORD; NAME SIEBEN LEADER

for all the college had done to make Homecoming Days a success, upon a motion of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. D. Lawrence Monahan, '00-'05, of Fort Wayne.

The Rev. Ildephonse Rapp, C.P.P.S., '93-'00, chairman of the meeting and past president of the Association, appointed Lou Nagelsen, '03-'09, of Fort Wayne; Otto Birkmeier, '06-'09, of Delphos, and the Rev. James Maloney, '25-'31, of Louisville, auditors of the treasurer's books.

Cook County Chapter members will gather at Sieben's, on July 25, it was announced at the meeting.

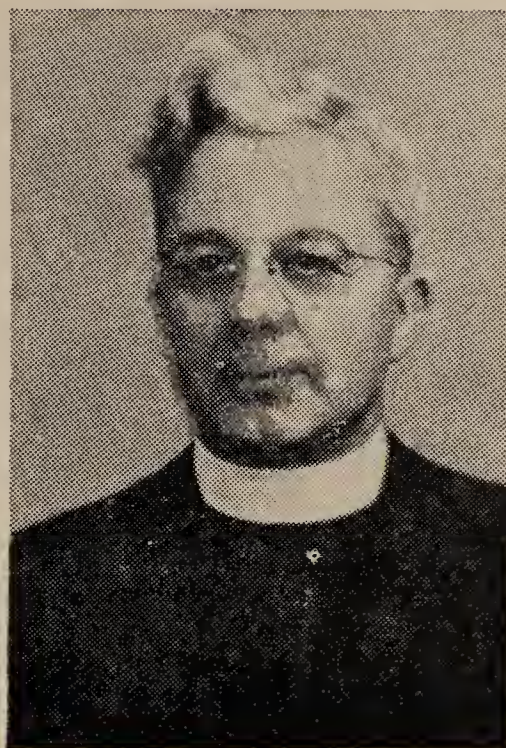

Jack Jones, '00-'03, while reporting Calumet Chapter's activities, suggested it be impressed upon the alumni that all former students of St. Joe, not merely graduates, are eligible for membership in a chapter.

Cincinnati Chapter's report was given by James O'Brien, '16-'21.

Otto Birkmeier, '06-'09, president of the Delphos, O., unit, announced that in the fall the chapter will start a round-table discussion of the question, "What Have I to Offer for the Good of St. Joe?" He suggested that all chapters consider the same question.

James Heckman, '28-'34, president of the Louisville chapter, said that preparations are already being made to show the football team and visiting alumni a great time when they come to Kentucky, October 20, for the University of Louisville game.

GETS CLEMENCY

Rev. Sylvester Ley

"One more chance," was the verdict handed-down by the Alumni Association when the Rev. Sylvester Ley, C.P.P.S., '18, gave an historian's report similar to the one Father Meinrad had given for years.

Father Ley is reelected at a time when the office ceases to be merely honorary. From now on the historian will have to do some deep digging into the mythical archives, so that the Alumni Association will have its share of space in the History of St. Joseph's, to be published for the Golden Jubilee celebration in 1941.

The Midwestern Ohio Chapter expects a hundred members at its next meeting, according to A. H. Bernard, '01-'02, president.

"Central Indiana Chapter was just formed March 30 and is too young to do any talking yet," said John Wolf, president.

The assembly showed its approval of Oscar Sieben's motion to buy cigars for the Raleigh Club.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:55 p.m.

The Rev. James Maloney, '25-'31, Louisville; Henry Miller, '28-'34, Fort Wayne; Rev. Fred Fehrenbacher, '17-'22, Collegeville; J. P. Linder, '16-'22, Sturgis, Mich.; Rev. UP AND AT 'EM

Rev. Joseph Hennes

Busier than a one-armed paper-hanger with the hives is the Rev. Joseph Hennes, '13-'16 and '19-'22. He is director of the C.Y.O. in Fort Wayne, director of the N.C. C.W., for the Fort Wayne deanery, chaplain of St. Vincent's Villa, Irene Byron Sanatorium, Allen County Home for the Aged, Allen County Children's Home, and Fort Wayne State School for the Feeble-Minded.

Mayor Harry Baals decided that Father Hennes ought to have something to do during his spare time and so he appointed the St. Joe alumnus chairman of the Fort Wayne City Soft Ball Association.

Cincy Chapter Acts as Host to St. Joe Team

The Cincinnati Chapter showed the baseball team and visiting Alumni a wonderful time after the Xavier game, May 10, according to the Rev. Edward Roof, C.P.P.S., '23, athletic director.

After being host at a dinner, the Cincy unit turned over the ping pong, billiard and swimming facilities of the Fenwick to the team, and then took care of the hotel bill for the night.

Officers of the Cincinnati Chapter were elected at the May 4 meeting at St. Mark's. They are: President, Norbert Schuck, '18-'22, Ludlow, Ky.; vice-president, Arnold Hackman, '24-'25; secretary, the Rev. Albin Ratermann, '18-'24; and treasurer, Edmund Hoelker, '17-'18.

Arrangements are being made to hold a joint picnic with Alumni from Hamilton and Dayton.

HOMEcoming PROVES ALUMNI RETAIN 'UMPH!'

At the banquet, Bob Peelle, '95-'98, of Indianapolis, told this incident that happened while he was at St. Joe: "One night we had baloney. It was delicious looking baloney, and all the fellows started grabbing. Just about that time one of the kids happened to remember that an old horse that used to drag himself around here had died a few days before. And just as the fellows were putting the baloney away, he said, 'Whoa, Tom!' Everybody quit eating right then."

The denizens of Turner Hall marveled at Jim Heckmann, '34, of Louisville. They couldn't understand how he could sleep with the morning sun beating down in his face.

You can count on one hand the Alumni Days Lou Nagelsen, '03-'09, of Fort Wayne, has missed. "One year I was in Seattle, Washington, and I sent the Alumni greetings in a telegram that cost me $3.95. And you know what, I don't think they even read the dog-gone thing," Lou said dryly.

Albin L. Hemmert, '12-'13, of Celina, O., slept in the chapel dorm. He said, "Everything was all right till about 3 o'clock, when those three Irishmen came in."
